THE HARE AND THE TORTOISE

Once a hare and a tortoise lived in a forest. The hare was proud of his fast speed. One summer day the tortoise challenged him to run a race. The hare laughed at his idea.

On the set day, the two were ready for the race. The race began. At the starting line the hare took off in the lead. The tortoise started the race slowly. After sometime the hare thought that there was plenty of time to take a nap to wait for the tortoise. The tortoise went on walking slowly without taking rest. He crossed the sleeping hare.

A bee buzzed in the hare's ear and he woke up. He noticed that the tortoise's footsteps were long gone. He started running again. But it was too late. The tortoise was about to cross the finish line. The hare tried to get ahead, but tripped and fell. Feeling ashamed with the crowd cheering him on, the tortoise reached the finish line in first place.
